Call for Papers

The Basic Course Committee of the Speech Communication Association welcomes submissions to be considered for The Basic Communication Course Annual IV to be published in 1992. All submissions should follow the latest APA Styleguide or they will be returned to the author. Manuscripts will be competitively reviewed by at least three reviewers.

Include a 75- to 100-word abstract of your article with the manuscript. In addition, send along an author identification page following the format used in this volume. All of these materials should accompany your submission.

Each manuscript will be sent out for blind review. Please be sure all author and institution affiliation are removed from the text of the manuscript. Send four (4) copies of your manuscript and all accompanying materials to:

Lawrence W. Hugenberg, Editor
The Basic Communication Course Annual
Department of Speech Communication and Theatre
Youngstown State University
Youngstown, Ohio 44555-3633
(216)742-3633

All submissions must be complete and received by January 1, 1992. Late submissions run the risk of not being considered for The Basic Communication Course Annual IV.

Basic Communication Course Annual

First published in November 1989, the Basic Communication Course Annual is the result of the ongoing belief in the need to provide a publication outlet for research and information dedicated solely to the basic communication course. Each Annual presents exciting essays emphasizing current trends in Speech Communication and highlighting award winning papers.
